OVERVIEW

The 8th annual River of the West Mandolin Camp is June 9 – 12, 2016, in Corbett, Oregon, located in the Columbia River Gorge just 20 miles east of Portland. Instructors include Don Stiernberg (swing and jazz), Evan Marshall (classical and folk), Emory Lester (bluegrass), Jordan Ramsey (cross-picking bluegrass) and Camp director Brian Oberlin (bluegrass and swing). In the four days of mandolin immersion, each Camper will experience workshops from all five teachers, ensemble rehearsals and performance, structured and non-structured jams, bonfires, meals, and lodging. The maximum student capacity is 45 which makes for smaller classes from some of the best teachers and players in the world.

MANDOLIN INSTRUCTORS

Brian Oberlin, the creator and director of the River of the West Mandolin Camp, has been performing and teaching mandolin for 15 years. As an educator, Brian teaches nearly one hundred mandolin workshops each year at festivals, arts centers, and academies around the world. Brian was a faculty member at the 2012 and 2013 International Mandolin Academy in Italy and was a featured performer at the Festival der Mandoline in Berlin, Germany in September, 2015. Brian is the founder and director of the Oregon Mandolin Orchestra and performs as a soloist with other Orchestras. With four solo albums, Brian continues to delve into new regions of the mandolin, exploring solo composition and performance.

Don Stiernberg learned to play the mandolin from the influential and innovative virtuoso Jethro Burns. Jethro referred to Don as his "graduate student", hired him to play in his band, and guided him into a lifelong career in music. A leading exponent of jazz mandolin style, Don has eight recording projects of his own and appears on many others by a variety of artists in all styles. In addition to touring from coast to coast and abroad with his own trio, he stays busy with freelance performing and recording session work in and around his native Chicago. This is Don's eighth year at the River of the West Mandolin Camp, and he is a regular staff member at the Mandolin Symposium, Kaufman Kamp, Swannanoa, Mando Camp North, Cape Cod Mandolin Camp, Ashokan Swing Week, Accademia Internazionale di Mandolino, European Mandoline Akademy, Momento Rio Bandolim. www.donstiernberg.com

This is Evan Marshall's second year teaching at the Camp. Evan is a virtuoso mandolinist, prominent as an arranger of classical music pieces for the mandolin and proponent of the duo style of playing. As a performer, he has worked as a featured guest with several symphony orchestras, including the Houston Symphony, Phoenix Symphony, and Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra. He is a former member of Billy Hill and the Hillbillies. Marshall played the violin from the time he was 7-years old, playing classical. He was inspired by Chet Atkins and learned about bluegrass music after seeing Atkins play on television. He pursued bluegrass, joining a folk music club, and when he was 14-years old, discovered the mandolin, by way of a club member with a mandolin at home. Marshall plays with what he calls a "musician's slight of hand", the duo style.

This is Emory Lester's first year at the ROW Camp. He is one of this day's foremost exponents of the acoustic mandolin. His landmark recording projects have placed him among the elite mandolinists of our time. His most recent solo CD 'At Dusk' showcases Emory's multi-instrumentalist musical creativity and skills. Undeniably, his clean, clear, fast and efficient mandolin techniques continue to influence many modern day mandolinists. Emory has toured all across the U.S., and has been featured on several performances with Steve Martin, most notably on the 'Late Night with David Letterman' television show in September of 2012. Emory also currently performs with his partner Jill Jones in the new 'Emory Lester & Jill Jones Band', at upcoming concerts and festivals, as well as with the bluegrass band 'Wayne Taylor and Appaloosa', doing shows across the U.S., Canada, Europe and the U.K. Emory has also been a music instructor since 1978.

Another first timer at ROW is Jordan Ramsey, an award-winning mandolinist and teacher residing in the Front Range area of Colorado. A native of Tennessee, he attended the Bluegrass and Country Music Program at East Tennessee State University and played with the school's premiere bluegrass ensemble from '05 until '07. As a part of the ETSU "Pride Band" (led by former Jim and Jesse banjo player Raymond McLain), he had the opportunity to share the stage with stars like Porter Wagoner, Ralph Stanley, Curley Seckler, Tater Tate, Alison Krauss, Dan Tyminski, and Adam Steffey. Contest highlights include: 2008 RockyGrass Mandolin Champion, top-five finalist in the 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2014 National Mandolin Championship in Winfield, KS. Performance highlights: Gettysburg Bluegrass Festival, RockyGrass, Northwest String Summit, Lancaster Music Festival (UK), Aspen Contemporary Ensemble, and Colorado Music Festival Orchestra.

STUDENT LEVEL AND CAPACITY

The maximum capacity of the River of the West Mandolin Camp is 45 students (ages 14 and older). Although the Camp is intended for all levels of mandolinists, absolute beginners (people who have no idea how to play anything on the mandolin) are encouraged to take private lessons before attending the Camp. In other words, an attendee at the Camp is someone who can, at least, play an open G, C, and D chord, keep a rhythm, and have basic knowledge of how to read tablature or music notation. Traditionally, there are about 10 beginners, 25 intermediate, and 10 advanced players attending the Camp. The instructors teach their classes accordingly. Most of the materials and concepts are playable and accessible to any level player, while a small portion is challenging for even the most advanced players. The ROW Camp philosophy is to ensure that every student is learning and engaged throughout the Camp. This mission is successful because the instructors are primarily excellent teachers, as well as top-notch players.

The Menucha Retreat Center offers a pool, walking trails, and stunning views.
